Letter from Petersburg. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

Petersecro, January 27, 1875. Two or three happy windfalls, or, more properly speaking, God-sends, befell the Reliel Association at its meeting held last night. Mr. P. Brown contributed $50 to the funds of the Association, and from two of the colored churches of the city contributions amounting to some $30 or $40 were received. Last week the Association adopted resolutions requesting the churches to take up colsunday) for the beneat of the poor. rison of Tennessee, Havens of Mis-Sunday) for the bencht of the pool.

None of them paid any heed to ton of New Jersey, Hoskins of New York, the invitation except the two African churches referred to. For some reason or other the churches have little or nothing to do with the Association, preferring to operate through their own agencies, and for the special benefit of their own poor. There is also some prejudice against the Association because its officers and members are white and colored without distinction. This, of

The Association fell victim last week to a singular and amusing imposition. A woman (white) sent word to the Association through a leading minister of the city that she was absolutely dying from cold, exposure, and general want. The officers immedistely sent her a load of wood and other distery sent per a most of the good of Indiana. This was 55 Republican votes doubtful if the amendment proposed by the woman that she gave a party, at which herself and friends got tremendously drunk. This report shows that on the The statute of 1872, invalid and inope day of the election in November last there were 2,450 men on the books of the Charlestown (Mass.) navy-yard, all drawing full pay. The resolution recommended by the caucus committee to sustain the action of the President and General Sheridan was adopted with a few dissenting voices. John Ambler Smith, the representative from the Richmond district, opposed the resolution, and was sus-tained by several other "Rads" of less notoriety. [Special dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.] The Presidential Term.

Washington, January 26 .- The House voted this afternoon on the question of making the presidential term six years, and while there was a majority of thirty in favor of the proposition, it was defeated-a twothird vote being required. The vote on the adoption of the resolution was 134 to 104. The Democrats voted solid in its favor. The Republicans voting in the affirmative were Albert of Maryland, Albright of Pennsylvania, Begole of Michigan, Buffinton of Massachusetts, Bundy of Ohio, Cannon of Illinois, Cessna of Pennsylvania, Clayton of California, Crounse of Nebraska, Darrall of Louisiana, Dawes of Massachusetts, Dunnell of Minnesota, Field of Michigan, Foster of Ohio, Garfield of Ohio, Gooch logg of Connecticut, Killinger of Pennsylvania, Lawrence of Ohio, Lawson of New York, Lowndes of Maryland, McCrary of Missouri, Strait of Minnesota, Strawbridge tent is unavoidable.

The House Committee on Naval Affairs has not, as has been stated, agreed upon any report in relation to the alleged sale of a cadetship by Congressman Stowell, of Virginia. The first consultation in relation to the report to be submitted took place to-day, but no conclusion was reached, and the discussion indicated that the committee was not unanimous. The whole subject was adjourned until Thursday next. While it is probable that a majority report will be adopted exonerating Mr. Stowell from any direct criminality in connection with the cadetship, there are certain circumstances connected with the case which will demand some expression of opinion independent of the absolute result arrived at by the com-

ELECTION OF ANDREW JOHNSON .- Nashville, January 26 .- The Convention met at noon. Governor Brown refused to have his name again presented before the Convention. Gustavus A. Henry, William H. Stephens, and D. M. Key were placed in nomination. The fifty-fourth ballot resulted as follows: Johnson, 47; Henry, 13; Stephens, 24; Key, 1; Ewing, 11-necessary to a choice, 50. The fifty-fifth ballot was then taken with the following result: Johnson, 52; Henry, 11; Stephens, 23; Key, 3; Ewing, 9. The President declared Andrew Johnson elected United States senator amidst the wildest excitement and enthusiasm.

The enthusiasm and excitement over the election of Hon. Andrew Johnson to the United States Senate is beyond description. To-night he made a thirty minutes' speech to upwards of ten thousand people in the public square, announcing his adherence to Democratic principles as set forth in his administration of the Government and former speeches. Rumors were circulated on the State elections. streets and in the hotels this afternoon that Mr. Johnson had made concessions to the Republican members of the Legislature for their votes, but he denies most emphatically "Zack's busted!" "Rings are played!"

"Zack's busted!" "Rings are played!" having made concessions in any form, or entering into any understanding with other candidates or opposition, and says that he was elected upon the broad platform of the Constitution, and the administration of the law as enunciated.

while horses, mules, jackasses, lawyers, doctors, sheep, and every useful thing is taxed, is one of the most remarkable exhibitions of folly that we can well conceive of. Is it not wonderful that the people, and especially the farmers, should permit such a state of things to exist? Is it not a most striking result of the want of conference and cooperation among our agriculturists? > CHANDLER'S DEFEAT-HOW THE NEWS WAS RECEIVED IN DETROIT. - [Detroit Free Press, January 23.1—Fifteen minutes after the action of the Legislature yesterday had made a United States senator of Judge Christiancy and consigned Zachariah Chandler to his political grave, the news was flashed to Detroit. There had been a quiet but intense excitement among high and low politicians and the people at large for several days, and while few believed that a final vote would be reached yesterday, and others thought that 'Chandler's chances would improve, scarcely any one was prepared for the sudden and momentous news. It struck Griswold street "in a heap." The first dispatches were directed to prominent Republicans, and they rubbed their eyes and took a second look before rushing out to spread the weighty information. "Chandler's knocked endways," was the exclamation, and it was replied to by-"Thunder !- are you crazy?"

Some recipients of dispatches rushed to the telegraph office and shouted to the clerk-"Here! you've made a d-l of a mistake!" "Guess not," was the reply.
"But Chandler can't be defeated!"
